King

1. a. William “Billie” King (c. 1794, KY/VA – c. 1869, Ballard Co., KY) m. 4 Sept., 1823, Nelson Co, KY to Rebecca “Becca” Harrison (c. 1798, KY/VA – aft. 1870). Several of the King’s were wagon makers.

*William and Rebecca King are seen in Ballard Co., KY by 1850. William’s grandfather may have been Valentine King. Rebecca’s grandfather may have been Burr Harrison. These are not proven. The 1920 Nelson Co. census shows 5 Kings and 5 Harrisons. William may have been living with a Mountjoy King. Mountjoy is too young to be his father. Someone in the household was listed as a manufacturer and this could be William since he states later on that he was a wagon maker.

1. a. Absalom Franklin, Sr. (4 Aug., 1764, Albemarle Co., VA – 3 Sept., 1835, Hopkinsville, Christian Co., KY) m. 26 May, 1787 in Greene Co., TN to Margaret Gullett. Margaret's father was Reece P. Gullett. Absalom was a Private in VA during the Revolutionary War.

*From Absalom's pension application:

State of Kentucky; Christian County, On October 26, 1833 – Personally appeared the above soldier, age 69. States that he was born in Albmarle (sic) county Virginia 1764, August 4. He volunteered in May 1781 under Captain Kirtly commanded by Col. Alcock ... (and others) that he was marched through Williamsburg to York where he was discharged at the end of two months and then marched home. About the September 1st 1781, again substituted in the room of another man not distinctly recollected but thinks it was Snell, was in a company commanded by Captain Stubblefield ... (and others) that he was at the siege of York and continued in the service two months, when he was marched up as a guard to carry prisoners to Winchester Barracks when he was discharged and he then moved to East Tenn, where he again volunteered and served under Captain Baker as an Indian spy on the frontier of Tennessee for the term of two months. He then removed from Tennessee to Franklin County Georgia, where he again volunteered as an Indian spy and under Captain Bowen and continued in this service for the term of two months. He would remark from his advanced age, and infirmity, he cannot state the month or year in which he entered the service as an Indian spy either in Tennessee or Georgia, but he well recollects the time and service. States that when he enlisted first, he enlisted in Culpepper County, Virginia. "I lived since in East Tennessee, part of the time in Georgia, and part of the time in Christian County, Kentucky where I now live." (His pension file includes a family Bible record which give his date and place of birth, his wife's name and date of birth. It includes their children and their birthdates.)
